

DietGel[®] GEM

Purified Dietary Supplement for Genetically Engineered Models

DietGel[®] GEM is a nutritionally fortified dietary supplement designed to support the health of genetically modified rodent strains to thrive through the growth, reproduction, maintenance and ageing life stages. Formulated with purified ingredients with high milk protein and milk fat to duplicate the essential nutrients during lactation, DietGel[®] GEM is particularly effective at supporting the vulnerable weaning stage of GEM rodents. DietGel[®] GEM combines hydration and nutrition in a single serving, and is flavor enhanced to increase consumption.
